

WHY BUSINESS AVIATION MATTERS FOR EUROPE

USERS

Saving time, increasing productivity, and boosting employee performance

THE ECONOMY

Promoting high-skilled jobs, attracting investment, and boosting Europe's competitiveness

SOCIETY

Supporting local communities in remote places and saving lives

2 hours
average time saved per trip

€2 840
average productivity gain per passenger per trip

400 000
highly skilled jobs

€100 billion
turnover

25 000
airport pairs directly connected exclusively by Business Aviation

1 200
medical flights operated each month

ENVIRONMENT

Taking unprecedented steps to reduce carbon footprint

Carbon neutral growth by 2020

50%
reduction in CO₂ emissions by 2050 relative to 2005

2%
fuel efficiency gain per year from 2010 until 2020

SAFETY & SECURITY

Achieving the highest safety and security standards more than 1 million passengers carried safely every year

100%
of commercial operators must implement Safety Management Systems (SMS) and Emergency Response Plans (ERP)

Connects people

Drives growth

Ensures sustainability

GAINS FOR PEOPLE ACROSS EUROPE

PIONEER IN TECHNOLOGY AND SUSTAINABILITY